StrataPT Among Second-Stage Businesses Competing to Earn Prestigious Honor
(<http://swedenbreakingnews.com/press-release/stratapt-among-second-stage-businesses-competing-to-earn-prestigious-honor~a/>)

MAY 31, 2019

StrataPT was among the first round of the 2019 Florida Companies to Watch finalists recently announced by GrowFL. The awards event - now in its ninth year - honors 50 select second-stage companies from throughout the state for developing valuable products and services, creating quality jobs, enriching communities, and broadening new industries throughout Florida. Chosen from 224 growing second-stage participants from throughout Florida, this year's applicants had a total revenue of $596 million and over 3,000 employees. "I realized very early on that if we provided our clients with exceptional customer service, provided our employees with a positive and supportive work environment, and developed a true all in one software platform, then the growth would follow. Our growth can be attributed to good ole fashioned grit and always doing right by our clients and employees," says Kimberly Peacock, StrataPT's founder and CEO. The...

How To Turn Tragedy Into A Profitable And Life Changing Business (<http://swedenbreakingnews.com/press-release/how-to-turn-tragedy-into-a-profitable-and-life-changing-business~a/>)

JUNE 04, 2019

Most people don't make it through life unscathed and the same holds true for entrepreneurs. Some entrepreneurs try to hide their battle scars of abuse, addiction, and eating disorders, while others find a way to take their struggles and turn them into their life-changing message. Kelley Kitley owner of Serendipitous Psychotherapy () and co-owner of reNew Studio shares with EmpiHER® TV on Apple TV's BRANDpreneur™ Network exactly how she took her personal story of sexual abuse, addiction, and eating disorder and turned it into a multiplatform business empire helping women throughout Chicago and the world. Getting real about what it takes to build a thriving consulting practice, wellness studio, and successful book - Kitley explains the heartaches and unexpected triumphs that have kept her going throughout her career. "What is so amazing about Kitley's story is that instead of being defined by her past, abuse, and addiction,...

An unusual bump on your tongue. A lump on your gums. A lesion in the back of your throat. These unusual symptoms can be harmless and heal on their own. Or they can signal the early stages of oral cancer. Fortunately, the earlier oral cancer is identified, the easier it is to treat. Your dentist may spend most of their time on your teeth and gums, but while doing their dental work, they are in a prime position to spot the signs of oral cancer. Early Detection of Oral Cancer Oral cancer is a blanket term that covers several types of cancer that can occur in the tongue, cheeks, lips, gums, and throat. Oral cavity cancer occurs in the mouth area, while oropharyngeal, or throat, cancer occurs in the esophageal tract. Through continuing education programs and training that focuses on early detection, a is trained to identify suspicious growths or discolored areas in the mouth and throat that may signal the onset of throat cancer.
